Nehru Rules Out Use of Force Against Chinese

By WATSON SIMS

NEW DELHI (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru today ruled out any immediate use of force against Chinese Communist troops his government charges have occupied Indian territory at two points on the Tibetan frontier.

Nehru rejected a suggestion in parliament that the Indian Air Force bomb a road the Chinese reportedly have built across uninhabited territory in the Ladakh sector of Kashmir State.

"Countries should not go to war without examining other ways to settle such matters," Nehru told parliament in rejecting the bombing suggestion by members of the Praja Socialist Party.

The Chinese moved into the northern edge of Ladakh and built the road in 1957. Members angrily pointed out that Peiping had ignored India's complaints about their intrusion into Ladakh since last November. They asked what the government proposed to do.

"We hope this will be settled by discussions and conferences, and we do not propose to go to war,"

As Nehru planned a series of talks with leaders of other states adjoining Chinese-occupied Tibet, Indian army troops were rushed to strengthen border guards on the northeast frontier, the other area threatened by the Chinese.

Nehru said the Chinese had produced old maps to back up their claims on the Ladakh territory. India disagreed with the claim, he continued, but this could be a matter for discussion.

Rain, Wind Bring Damage in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rain and windstorms hop-scotched around Arkansas yesterday, causing some damage.

A 30-foot section of a boat dock on Lake Hamilton, near Hot Springs, was torn loose by winds.

Several boats were damaged and others were hurled ashore. The Hot Springs Municipal Airport reported wind gusts up to 50 miles an hour along with .38 of an inch of rain.

At Crossett, an electrical transformer was hit by lightning and power to the city was knocked out for two hours. A hard rain also fell and winds tore off tree limbs.

Wind gusts of up to 16 miles an hour hit Little Rock and rain fell. The brief storm dropped the temperature from 89 degrees at noon to 73 at 1 p.m., the high and low for the day, the U. S. Weather Bureau said. A roof was blown off a service station, power lines were downed and some boats were damaged at Lake Maumelle.

The Weather Bureau forecast partly cloudy skies today with scattered thundershowers.

One Arrested in Hit-Run Death

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Robert Severs, 28, of Hot Springs, was held in jail in lieu of $5,000 bond today in connection with a hit-and-run traffic death Saturday night.

He was charged with involuntary manslaughter.

The victim, George Franklin Wells, 39, was struck by an auto as he walked to work at a drive-in movie. His body was dragged 75 feet.

State Trooper Glenn Minton said police found Severs asleep in his car several hours after the accident and that the auto's front end was damaged and stained with blood.

Severs said he had been drinking beer Saturday night and didn't recall his actions, Minton said.

Wells is survived by two sons and a daughter, all of Star City.

New Chancellor Is Named in 12th Dist.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Churchill Buck, a Blytheville attorney, will be appointed 12th District Chancellor to succeed the late W. Leon Smith, the office of Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today.

Dan Stephens, aide to the governor, said the appointment probably would be announced formally later in the day.

Nursing Home Probe Continues

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A Pulaski County Grand Jury resumed its investigation of nursing home operations today.

The jury has been studying nursing homes for several weeks, since Gov. Orval E. Faubus charged misconduct by some homes at a news conference July 16.

Child Found in Ice Box, Man Is Held

CINCINNATI (AP) — Debby Tucker, 6-year-old who police say spent half a day jammed inside a running refrigerator, is recovering at General Hospital today.

Detectives said they plan to file charges against Charles Thomas Crawford, 21, who they said admitted molesting the girl before stuffing her into the refrigerator.

Hospital aides said the youngster was unconscious when brought in early Sunday but revived about three hours later.

Her stepfather, Kenneth Spangler, 24, discovered her in the refrigerator of an unused apartment next to the Spangler apartment.

Spangler and his wife had just returned from a search with police and neighbors for the girl.

Mrs. Spangler heard a moan from an unused apartment and Spangler investigated.

"She was practically frozen when I pulled her out," he said.

Warns School Boards to Cut Millage

BY JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus today warned school boards over the state that they "continue to endanger the property reassessment program by refusing to lower millages."

The governor discussed reassessment at length during a news conference at which he announced the resignation of P. W. Canaday, director of the Arkansas Assessment Co-ordination Department.

Canaday, who as assistant director helped organize the department in 1957, will return to the printing and publishing business Oct. 1. He owns a weekly newspaper at England.

"I've said all along that school men can wreck the program unless they are realistic," Faubus said. "The Little Rock School Board, for example, has refused to lower its millage although its income has increased as a result of reassessment."

The governor said some school districts had proposed to cut taxes as many as 12 mills while other proposed no cut at all.

Faubus said he felt the reassessment program had "done more than a lot of people expected."

"Nobody can seriously object to the aims of the program; that is, equalization of property assessments," Faubus said.

"But certainly there has been some mistakes in administering reappraisals."

The governor was particularly critical of the practice of hiring private appraisal firms to make new assessments. "I feel some of these companies raised assessments far too much," he said.

He mentioned Faulkner County, where appraisals by a private firm now have been abandoned because of protests and court action.

Faubus praised the 1959 Legislature for repealing the 1955 reassessment law to renewance of the grounds for complaint.

"I think it's evident that the program has gained the confidence of the people," the governor said, "because we had no trouble with it at all in the 1959 Legislature while we managed to save the program by only one vote in 1957."

He said he would continue to promote the reassessment program as long as it was administered under the law.

Negro Held for Texarkana Shooting

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — A young Negro was held in jail today in connection with a shotgun sniper-attack on a white man.

The victim Eddie Sutton, 21, of Texarkana, was shot in the shoulder as he sat in his parked car with a girl friend yesterday. He was hospitalized in good condition.

Robert Earl Merdew, 23, was held on an open charge.

Deputy Sheriff Fleming O'Neal said officers found evidence in high, wet grass near the scene that the assailant had crawled to a point near the car.

Police followed tracks to Merdew's home. O'Neal said a shotgun containing an empty shell was found in the room, along with a pair of wet trousers which had live shells in the pocket.

No motive for the shooting was apparent, O'Neal said. Merdew was not acquainted with either Sutton or the young woman.

Chinese Student Tells of His Voluntary Imprisonment in Eaves of a Michigan Church

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — "It was like death. I talked to myself more and more," Chheng Guan Lim said today describing his four-year voluntary imprisonment in the eaves of the First Methodist Church here.

Chheng, flushed out of his hiding place Sunday by police, told incredulous authorities and University of Michigan officials he went into hiding after the Michigan-Navy football game in 1955 to save face after failing in his studies in the university's engineering college.

The 28-year-old Chinese student said he hadn't spoken to anyone during the four years. He said he subsisted on scraps of food picked up from the church kitchen following social activities.

Chheng, son of a Singapore school teacher, said he brushed his teeth with burnt match sticks, cut his hair with a pair of shears and trimmed his beard with a set of tweezers.

His strange existence was discovered after private police were hired to check the church building after complaints of prowlers.

Officers entered the building after a couple living in the basement heard noises. They heard a door slam and went to the eaves where Chheng was found.

The student was found cowering under a catwalk. He was wearing a pair of shorts, a t-shirt and a pair of socks. He had a pair of shears and a pair of tweezers.

Chheng said he decided on the hiding place after the football game and entered it to stay after the game. He said he had no intention of leaving.

"I was never ever up there, it was like death. There was no reason to go there," he said. He said he had never seen anyone else in the church.

"I was there three days with out food. You get used to hunger," he said. He said he had no intention of leaving.

School Opening to Await Hearing Set for Sept. 21

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A federal Court of Appeals decided today to speed up its consideration of an appeal from court-ordered integration of the Dollarway School District near Pine Bluff, Ark. The case was set for a hearing Sept. 21.

Herschell Friday, attorney representing the district, announced that the opening of school would be delayed until the result of the Sept. 21 hearing is learned.

Attorneys urged the court today to take quick action on the Dollarway appeal because state pupil placement laws throughout the nation hinge on the ruling.

The school district has been ordered to admit three negro pupils to integrated classes Sept. 8. When the school is scheduled to reopen for the fall term.

"We feel this is so important because it will affect every school district in the state of Arkansas," Friday said.

The hearing before two judges of the Court of Appeals was on the Dollarway district's motion for advancement of an appeal from the court-ordered admission of the three negro children.

The District requested a stay of judgment be granted on admission of the children if its appeal is not advanced to the court's term beginning Sept. 8.

Friday was supported in his arguments by Arkansas Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett. Both Friday and Bennett argued that Federal District Judge Axel J. Beck held valid Arkansas' pupil placement and assignment acts but did not follow standards provided by the laws when he ordered integration of the Dollarway school.

"If this lower court decision is upheld, then pupil placement laws throughout the nation have been torpedoed," Bennett said.

The Arkansas law specifies 15 standards to be considered in pupil placement. Bennett told Appeals Judges Martin and Oosterhout and M. C. Mathew that Beck considered only two of the standards in ordering admission of the three negroes.

The attorney general said Beck found that they were colored and that they lived in the district and that he'd never even seen the children. Arkansas' pupil placement act is patterned after one in Alabama.

Robert L. Carter of New York, a Negro attorney for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People argued against a speed-up of the appeals case.

Segregationists in the district near Pine Bluff have appealed to Arkansas Gov. Orval E. Faubus to use every means at his command, including force, to keep Negroes out of the school. The district has appealed to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Laos Gets Big Shipment of U.S. Supplies

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — The first load of the new U.S. military aid for the Laotian armed forces is made up of 2,600 pairs of shoes.

The shoes, for Laotian troops operating against Communist-led rebels in northern Laos, arrived in Vientiane today aboard a chartered transport.

The rest of the equipment under the new aid agreement — World War II small arms, rifles, clothing and vehicles — is due later.

Aid officials said troops operating in the jungled mountains wear out a pair of shoes in three months and the army needed footwear.

Butler's Plan Endangers Six States in South

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

At least six Southern states might face ouster from the 1960 Democratic National Convention under the recent proposal of national Chairman, Paul Butler.

In Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana and Mississippi, names of national party members for president and vice president do not appear on the ballot. South Carolina may do so to exclude them.

If the state party so requests, the vote is only on a slate of presidential electors named by party.

Butler said he had no intention of asking the South to do this. He said he had no intention of asking the South to do this.

Butler's Pain

Southern political leaders, already irritated by Butler's recent pronouncements on civil rights, are being included among Butler's critics.

Omission of names of candidates from the ballot or election of unpledged electors gives the Southern states some—but very little—leadway in the electoral college which actually elects the president and vice president.

The theory is that if there is a close race, no candidate could get a majority without the Southern electoral votes and thus throw the election into the House of Representatives where each state would have one vote.

But there have been no close races, and except for 1948, Southern electoral votes have gone to party nominees. In the 1948 election, Mildred Dawson on Wednesday.

Guests in the home of Hop Powell have been Mr. and Mrs. E. Gordon of Salem, Mo.

vention 38 Southern electoral votes were cast for the states rights Democratic nominees. And in 1956 one Alabama elector refused to vote for Stevenson.

Georgia in 1958 passed a law removing names of candidates from the ballot and in effect giving control of electoral votes to executive committees of the state parties. Arkansas passed a similar law this year.

Under a law of many years standing, only names of electors by party designation appear on the Alabama ballot. The state Supreme Court has ruled that they are free agents, but usually they vote for the party. A loyalty oath requirement of national nominees was abolished by the state Democratic executive committee several months ago, but an attempt to reinstate it may be made next year.

In South Carolina, voting is for electors who may or may not be committed to the party candidates. A decision on such a commitment likely will not be made until after the state Democratic convention in April.

Only names of party electors appear on the Louisiana ballot. The state Democratic central committee can do as it sees fit. Mississippi puts names of election's population is about half Negro.

The appeal is opposed by three Negro pupils—Ernestine Dove, 10; James Edward Warfield, 12; and Corliss Smith, 12. They maintain a delay in integration would cause irreparable harm.

The order for admission of the three Negro pupils was issued by Federal Judge Axel J. Beck of Elk Point, S. D. On Aug. 26, he denied a motion for a stay.

One part of Beck's order has been appealed by the three Negro children. This concerned his ruling that the Arkansas pupil enrollment act of 1956 and the Arkansas pupil assignment act of 1959 are constitutional. Classes are to start Sept. 8, at Dollarway, about 40 miles south of Little Rock where two high schools reopened with token integration Aug. 12.

Arkansas Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett filed a friend of the court brief with the court.

"My interests in this case are in averting trouble at Dollarway and in keeping the Arkansas pupil placement laws from being torpedoes," he told a news conference at Little Rock.

Bennett said Beck ignored pupil placement provisions in ordering the three Negroes into the all-white school. Beck upheld the placement, laws but said the Board was not to place any boards to assist for various reasons.

"This decision, coupled with agitation to enact legislation designed to gain votes through play on emotions, has led to a serious deterioration of relations between the races."

The First Presbyterian Church was the setting on August 27 for the wedding of Miss Paula Faye Raley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Raley, and Lester David Pack of Pine Bluff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Alston Pack of Sherrill.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Steve Cook of Arkadelphia, vocal soloist, and Mrs. C. C. McNeill, organist, provided the nuptial music.

Vows were exchanged before an arch of greenery lighted by candles and flanked by baskets of white gladioli. The tapers were lighted by Sammy Baum and Bobby Baum, cousins of the bride who are from Little Rock.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gownned in silk pail-d'aise fashioned on a princess lines with a Sabrina neckline. The cap sleeves were appliqued with alcon lace, and the lace paneled bouffant skirt swept into a train in the back. With it the bride wore long white gloves, and her single strand of pearls was a gift from the bridegroom. Her waist length veil of illusion fell from a tiara enhanced with iridescent paillettes. A bouquet of fleur d' amour centered with a white orchid was carried on a white Bible.

Mrs. Maury J. Baum of Little Rock, aunt of the bride, was the matron of honor. Miss Henrietta Baum of Little Rock was the bridesmaid for her cousin. The two attendants wore companion shades of turquoise organza over taffeta. They had matching neckties and carried talisman roses. Miss Cindy Pack of Sherrill, niece of the bridegroom, was the flower girl. She wore a dress of white organza over taffeta with a turquoise sash.

L. A. Pack of Sherrill was his son's best man, and Pipkin Pack of Sherrill, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen. Donal Pipkin, both of Sherrill and cousins of the bridegroom, and Jerry Moore of Pine Bluff.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Raley wore a gold tulle sheath with matching accessories and pinned a bronze orchid at her shoulder. Mrs. Pack, mother of the bridegroom, chose to wear blue organza over taffeta with blending accessories. She had a white orchid corsage.

When the reception was held in the parlor of the church following the ceremony, Mrs. Jim McKenzie met the guests at the door and introduced them to the receiving line consisting of the newlyweds, their parents, and members of the wedding party.

The bride's table was white with a center arrangement of Fuji and pom chrysanthemums. Mrs. C. C. Lewis and Mrs. Tom McCarty poured the punch and served the two-tiered wedding cake. The cake, a heart shaped collonade was made by James T. Martin of San Antonio, Tex., a friend of the bride's family.

Mrs. Clyde A. Monts, Jr. had charge of the bride's book, and others assisting at the reception were Mrs. L. T. Lawrence, Mrs. Franklin McLarty, Mrs. Pipkin Pack of Sherrill, Mrs. P. V. "Primble, Mrs. Idus Murphree of Athens, Ohio, Mrs. R. E. Cooper, Mrs. J. W. Cunningham, Miss Lyla Brown of Forrest City, Mrs. Charles Hubbard and Mrs. Kelly Dale Wood of Magnolia.

For travel the bride wore a corded blue cotton suit with navy accessories. At her shoulder she pinning the white orchid from her bridal bouquet. After a southwest-tern trip, Mr. and Mrs. Pack will be at home in Pine Bluff.

Those attending from out of town were: Rev. and Mrs. Stephen L. Cook, Lucia, Stephen, Mary, and Joyce of Batesville; Mrs. W. E. Locke, Mrs. Kelly Dale Wood, Magnolia, Mrs. I. L. Mulphree, Emily, and Kathryn, of Athens, Ohio, Mrs. William Elter, Margaret, Cherry, and Sarah June of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Wimmell, McCaskill, Miss Lyla Brown, Forrest City, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kuyper, Arkadelphia, Mrs. John Keck and Jack Ashdown, Kenneth Williams, Stuttgart.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robinson, Judy, and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. John Pack, Mrs. M. H. Pipkin, Misses Kathy, Maxine, Pamela, and Lolita Pipkin; Mrs. Earl Chadick, and Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Pack of Sherrill.

Mrs. Newt Martin, Mrs. Jean Baggett, Mrs. Noah Perk, Mrs. Lucille Crain, Mrs. Dan W. Wimgard and Mrs. Austin Franks, of Pine Bluff.

new effort to help raise living standards in the have-not nations of the world. Britain already is pledged to cooperate with the United States along these lines. But the two leaders were said to have considered ways of broadening the basis of their efforts so other interested powers could join.

Most of these issues are expected to arise in one form or another during the Eisenhower talks with Khrushchev.

Eisenhower got another mighty "I like Ike" salute from Londoners today as he rode through the heart of the city to St. Paul's Cathedral.

Thousands massed around St. Paul's as the President and Prime Minister rolled up in an open car. They went to the cathedral to spread a solemn half hour in the chapel Britain built in memory of 28,000 Americans who lost their lives in World War II and had been based in the United Kingdom.

The President returned to the city for a round of appointments and an informal, televised report to the world with Macmillan to-night on their talks about future relations between the West and the Soviet Union.

By RELMAN MORI N

LONDON (AP)—President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan return to London today to report to the world on their weekend of talks about future relations between the West and the Soviet Union.

The two Western statesmen were to make their report in an informal, joint television appearance early tonight.

In advance of the telecast, official spokesmen had virtually nothing to report on what the President and the prime minister decided in their weekend of conferences at Chequers, the country estate of British prime ministers.

Newsman were told the talks covered the ability and readiness of the free world to resist Communist aggression and the prospects of agreement with the U. S. S. R. on suspension of nuclear weapon tests. A British spokesman said the talks were a general discussion hinged on the part the U. S. and British governments are playing in defending the free world.

on his student visa. He transferred to the University of Michigan to take engineering. Part of his educational expenses were paid by the Methodist Church and by the church's Wesley Foundation.

"I didn't live up to what they expected of me," the 5-foot-7 student said. "I think this is the worst thing a man can do. It makes him kind of a fraud."

"I'm glad it's over now. I hoped it would happen from the start. I didn't have the courage to do it myself."

University officials said the student probably disappeared on the weekend of Oct. 8-9 in 1955.

DOROTHY DIX

Listen a Lot, Talk Little to Be a Conversationalist

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm a freshman in a good college. Up to this point, my education has been in a girls' school and find myself tongue-tied in the presence of the boys at home. Though I realize now I never was much of a talker. Everybody seems to have a "fast" line here and I fell way out in left field. Do you have any hints for developing a glib tongue? — Myra

Dear Myra: The gift of gab is sent by heaven and if your fairy godmother withheld it at your christening you can't acquire it now. A nimble tongue, like a silver spoon, is a gift of nature at birth. So, you may not be an artist with a fast line but you probably have a pretty pair of ears designed for listening and in the gaps when you must do some talking, there's always the old-timer Frank Sinatra can keep up with newsmen, Fabian and Ricky Nelson, or "Did you read Dr. Zhivago?" (for this one, read the reviews at least.) There are a few other hints that might help. Keep the conversational ball rolling. Never let it come to an abrupt stop. If you're stuck, ask someone else, "What do you think?" Don't make too much effort to be a talker. Some people, they aren't, make the hideous mistake of monopolizing conversation with deadly details about a dull subject—usually themselves. Remember a few leading questions that will get your opponent talking about himself—boys love this! The my-but-you're-a-fascinating-creature look will get you farther with boys than the cleverest wisecracks.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm a business woman in my late thirties. Living with my mother and sister, both widows. I work late two or three evenings a week and have dinner in a restaurant close to the office. For about six months, I have noticed a very nice gentleman, about my age, dining alone at the same place. We got to greeting each other first with a smile, then a "Good evening," and finally he asked to sit at my table. We've been doing this for two weeks now. I pay my own bill, of course. He's a widower living with his parents. That's all I know of him personally. When I told my mother and sister about this episode, which I think is pleasant, they had fits. No nice girl, they said, would dream of picking up a man. They are making quite a to-do about it and I'm beginning to wonder if I have been foolish. — Maryanne

Dear Maryanne: This would be a sorry world if everyone stood on formality and insisted on introductions before speaking to strangers. There would be a lot more loneliness than there is now and goodness knows there's too much already. This was not exactly a pick-up and under the circumstances is quite permissible.

one of 7 big bests Chevrolet gives you over any car in its field

Proof that Chevy delivers the most miles from a gallon comes from an indisputable source: this year's Mobilgas Economy Run. For a pair of Chevrolet sixes with Powerglide walked away with the first two places in their class — got top mileage, in fact, of any full-sized car. Over the Run's long, rugged course, over mountain and desert in the long, long haul from Los Angeles to Kansas City, the winning Chevrolet averaged a whopping 22.38 miles per gallon. That's the kind of economy-engineering that keeps you saving while you drive!

BEST STYLE—It's the only car of the leading low-priced 3 that's unmistakably modern in every line. "In its price class," says POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, "a new high in daring styling."

BEST BRAKES—In competitive tests of repeated stops from highway speeds, conducted by NASCAR, Chevy outstayed both of the "other two." Naturally—Chevy brakes with bonded linings are far larger, built to lengthen brake life by up to 66%.

BEST TRADE-IN—Look at the record—the used car prices in any N.A.D.A. Guide Book. You'll find that Chevy used car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two."

BEST ENGINE—Chevrolet engines have long won expert praise and, just recently, Chevrolet received the NASCAR Outstanding Achievement award for "the creation and continuing development of America's most efficient V-type engines."

BEST ROOM—Official dimensions reported to A.M.A. make this abundantly clear. Chevy front seat hip room, for instance, is as much as 5.9 inches wider than in comparable cars.

BEST RIDE—MOTOR TREND magazine names Chevy "the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." But this is one Chevy feature you really should discover for yourself, at your Chevrolet dealer's. Stop by soon!

Hope Has to Be Ready Early for Tough Schedule

The Hope Bobcats go into this week's practice with time a big element as they get ready for the opening game of the season against the powerful Pine Bluff Zephyrs. This first game is only 12 days off, September 11.

Hope, hit heavily by graduation, is expected to have a faster but lighter crew. However, they are sadly lacking in depth and this could be a factor when they play such teams as Pine Bluff.

Reports from Pine Bluff indicate the Zephyrs will have one of their best teams in years with a veteran at every spot and plenty of depth. Then they will be after the Bobcats for a resounding defeat last year. The Zephyrs are dubbed the team to beat in the Big Eight.

Following Pine Bluff, the Bobcats meet DeQueen there. Hope was the only team to beat the Leopards last year. And reports from DeQueen indicate the Leopards will be stronger than in the last five years. The Hope boys need no reminder that DeQueen will be ready.

This is followed by Smackover which is ever tough and is under a new coach. And its no letup along the line with Bob Ellen's Monroe, La. team coming here, followed by strong Crossett at home; Fairview there; Magnolia at home; Camden there; Conway here. Arkadelphia here and then an open date before closing out with Nashville Thanksgiving.

So the next 12 days are important to the Bobcats who must be ready from the start as there is no letup along the way.

Murderous Youth Gangs Hit in N. Y.

NEW YORK (AP)—Police said today that at least a dozen suspects would soon be arrested in connection with the latest outbreak of murderous teen-age violence on New York City streets.

Chief of Detectives James B. Leggett said that two would be charged with homicide, and the rest with unlawful assembly.

Porkers Get Equipment on Tuesday

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The 75 young men who will carry the University of Arkansas' colors on the football field this fall took to the dressing room today for equipment and encouragement.

Tomorrow they hit the practice field for 18 days of hard work before the opening game with Tulsa on Sept. 19.

Coach Frank Broyles said two-a-day workouts will be held for at least a week, possibly longer depending on the physical condition of the team.

Seventeen lettermen are among the Hog candidates. A bumper crop of sophomores of last year's undefeated freshman team will be battling for first team and "Wild Hog" unit berths.

The Wild Hogs, or the Razorback second unit, in Arkansas' answer to the Chinese Bandits of Louisiana State University. The Razorbacks were the spirited unit that helped boost the Tigers to the national championship.

Razorback workouts will be private affairs this year. Only students, Razorback Club members, and newsmen will be admitted. And they will have to stay in specially constructed stands.

Workouts begin at 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Leggett said the fatal stabbings apparently did not represent organized gang action.

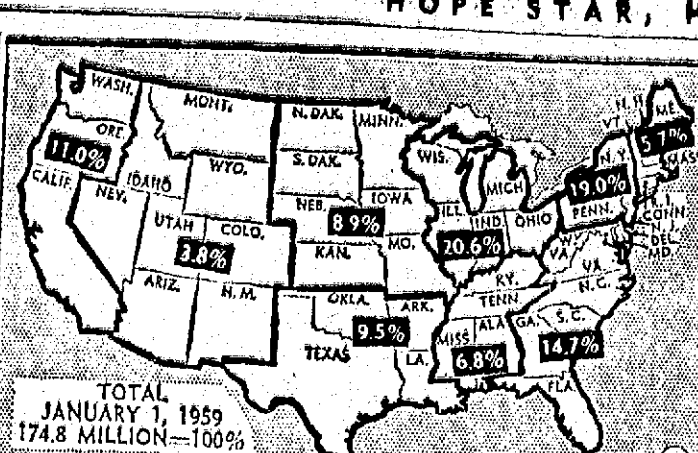

Two boys were stabbed to death early Sunday when a gang of boys armed with knives attacked a group of youngsters in a West Side playground.

The leader of the attacking group, police were told, wore a black cape and carried a cane. The deaths brought to four the number of young people killed in teenage violence in a week. The city's toll so far this year is eight.

A third boy was stabbed in the stomach in Sunday's violence. A bottle was broken over another boy's head, and two other boys and a girl were roughed up.

Six boys and two girls were slung in a darkened playground on Manhattan's West Side when they were set upon.

One of the boys who was roughed up, Jimmy Orphanos, 15, said the gang leader wore a black cape, "like the kind Dracula wears in the movies," and carried a cane.

POPULATION PROFILE—At the beginning of 1959, 175 million persons were living in the U.S., the Census Bureau last official census in 1950. Newsmap above shows how they were distributed in geographical areas. Eight states making up the highly industrialized Middle Atlantic and East North Central regions accounted for 40 per cent of the population. More than one-third of the total population was under the age of 20.

Pirates Capture Two; Only Four Games Behind

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

A little bit of luck and a lot of base hits have helped Elroy Face run up an amazing winning streak that now has reached 17 triumphs for 1959 and 22 without a defeat since May 31, 1958.

Face posted No. 17 Sunday as the Pittsburgh Pirates came from behind to defeat Philadelphia 7-6 after winning the opener of the doubleheader 2-1. The twin triumph boosted the fourth place Bucs to within four games of the front-running San Francisco Giants.

Face needs two more victories to equal Rube Marquard's record of 19 in one season and Carl Hubbell's mark of 24 consecutive wins in two.

Los Angeles' second place Dodgers climbed to within two games of San Francisco, also coming from behind to nip the Giants 7-6.

Chicago's Cubs kept their place in pace, defeating the Braves 3-2. Cincinnati topped St. Louis 6-4.

Face was saved from his first defeat when the Pirates faltered twice in the bottom of the 10th after Ed Bouche's homer off Elroy had given the Phils a temporary 6-5 lead.

Dick Stuart, who had hit a ninth inning home run as a pinch hitter, broke up the game with a two-run double. It followed a single by Don Hoak and a walk to Billy Virdon.

Bob Skinner's ninth inning single drove in the winning run in the opener and gave Harvey Had-dix his 11th victory. The second game victory was Pittsburgh's 18th in 20 extra inning games.

An error by Willie McCovey, rookie Giant first baseman, allowed the Dodgers to score the winning run in the bottom of the ninth. There were two out, bases full and 3-2 on Norm Larker. The batter hit the next pitch on the ground inside first base. McCovey bobbled it and Vally Moon trotted in from first with the winning run. Moon's triple a few minutes earlier scored Charlie Neal with the tying run. Neal had reached base

Chicago Sweeps Indian Series to Extend Lead

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Chicago's amazing "Good" White Sox boasted their biggest lead of the season today — 5 1/2 games — after having virtually shattered Cleveland's pennant hopes with a sweep of their vital four-game series.

At Lopez' pennant-bound club humbled the Indians twice Sunday 6-3 and 9-4 to give a Cleveland crowd of 66,500 little to cheer about.

Detroit took undisputed possession of third place, one game ahead of New York, by shutting out Kansas City 4-0 while Washington was trimming the Yankees 3-1. Boston blanked Baltimore 3-0.

A couple of former Indians, Early Wynn and Al Smith, and a pair of veteran relief aces, Gerry Staley and Turk Lown, were the key men in the White Sox' double triumph over Cleveland.

Wynn was credited with the first game victory, his eighth in nine decisions against his former mates since being traded two seasons ago. His home run in the sixth ignited the winning five-run rally. Although relieved by Staley in the eighth, he tied Detroit's Frank Lary for the league's most victories with 17. It was the 39-year-old right-hander's 26th lifetime triumph, pushing him into a tie with Bob Feller and Eppa Rixey.

Barry Latham, 23-year-old right-hander, was credited with his eighth Chicago victory in the second game but it took a scoreless four-inning relief chore by Lown to cement the victory.

Smith, who went along with Wynn in the trade with Chicago, drove in three runs for the White Sox with a home run and single. He also scored twice.

Don Mossi hurled a three-hit shutout for the Tigers and hit his first major league home run as he struck out eight Kansas City batters for his 12th victory. Bud Daley, in his third unsuccessful bid for his 16th victory, was charged with his ninth defeat.

Frank Sullivan pitched a four-hit shutout as Boston swept the three-game series with Baltimore. Red Sox batters honored for the game came on batting by Gus Triandos. The Baltimore catcher, unable to cope with Hoyt Wilhelm's knuckleball, was charged with four passed balls, equalling a major league record.

Rookie outfielder Bob Allison smashed his 29th home run and other two runs with a single to give Russ Kemmerer his eighth victory. Kemmerer and Tex Clevenger combined to hold the Yankees to five hits including a ninth inning home run by Hector Lopez.

Fulbright Says Develop Middle East

WASHINGTON (AP) — This would be a good time to develop a long range Middle East policy says Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark).

He noted there is an apparent calm in the Arab world as compared with a year ago when Iraq's revolution, American troops were in Lebanon and British soldiers were in Jordan.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in a statement he hopes "may move imaginatively and boldly toward a new, more mature and realistic relationship."

In the past year, he said, there has been a tenuous stability in events in the area offers a certain amount of cautious encouragement.

He added, "It seems to me that the peoples and governments of process of establishing the stability and relative calm essential to the development of representative government and economic growth."

The United States, he said, "must be prepared to meet these hopeful developments in the Arab world with a policy considerably more mature than that which we have followed in the past."

The senator said he hoped a policy could be formulated which measures to cope with periodic crises.

"We could only devise such a policy by treating each of these sovereign states on an adult and realistic basis, rather than suggesting the presence of a political vacuum in the Arab world," he said.

The Missouri Pacific system, which in 1917 formally absorbed the Iron Mountain, is today the most important railroad in the state.

Cement Plant at Okay Observes Its 30th Anniversary

First Major Industry Located in This Area

Thirty years ago this month the kiln, mills, and other equipment at Okay, Ark., started turning for the first time and the spanking new Ideal Cement Company plant there rolled into production.

In the thirty years since that exciting day, the men working in this southwestern Arkansas plant have produced more than 30 million barrels of Ideal portland cement. This is more than 11 billion pounds of cement — enough cement to build a concrete sidewalk 4 ft. wide and 4 in. thick around the world three times at the equator with enough left over to build a twelve lane super concrete highway from Little Rock to Texarkana.

But there is a lot more to the thirty year story than thirty million barrels of cement. The history of Ideal Cement Company and the economic development of Arkansas generally and southwestern Arkansas particularly are so intertwined and interrelated that it is almost impossible to discuss one without discussing the other.

Ideal's original plant in Howard County was the first major industrial installation in southwestern Arkansas. The plant originally had an annual productive capacity of 900,000 barrels which, at that time, was very nearly paralleled our state's cement consumption.

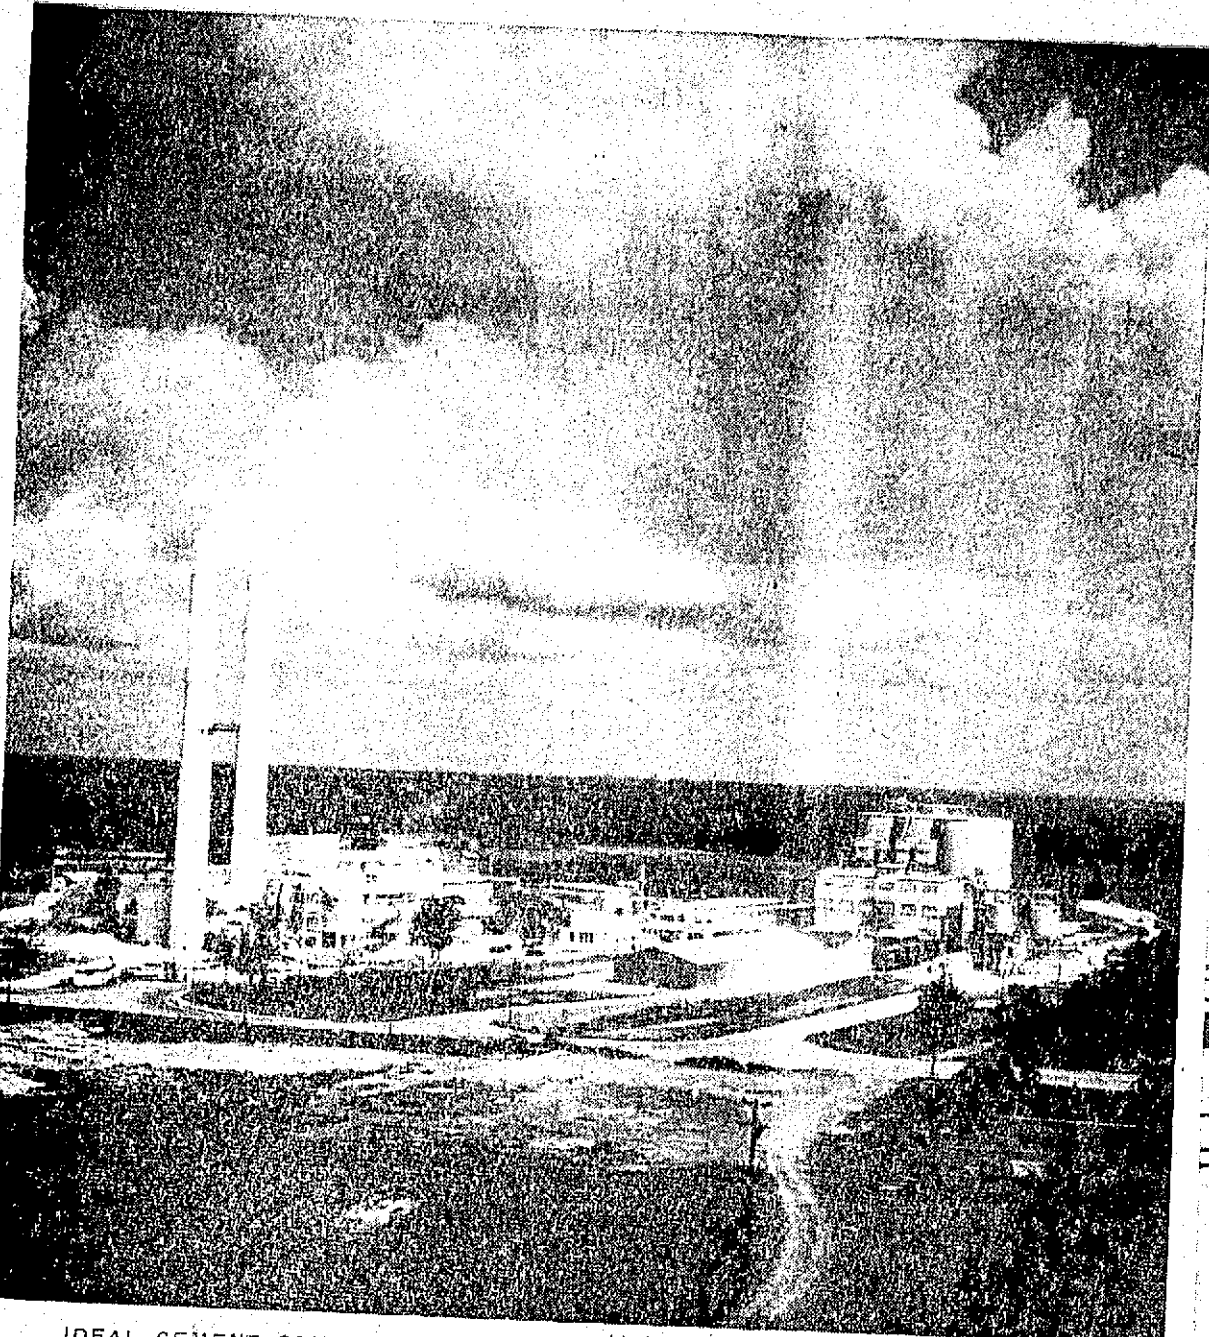

The Ideal plant at Okay today bears little resemblance to the original plant which began operations thirty years ago. It has more than doubled in size with a capacity which now approaches 2 million barrels annually, a figure still very nearly paralleling the consumption of cement in Arkansas.

Ideal's maintenance and modernization program has replaced, improved, added to, expanded and kept the plant a completely modern operation. The most recent expansion program included the installation of the latest quality and production control instruments, so the Okay plant is still today as efficient and as highly instrumented as any cement plant in the Mid-South.

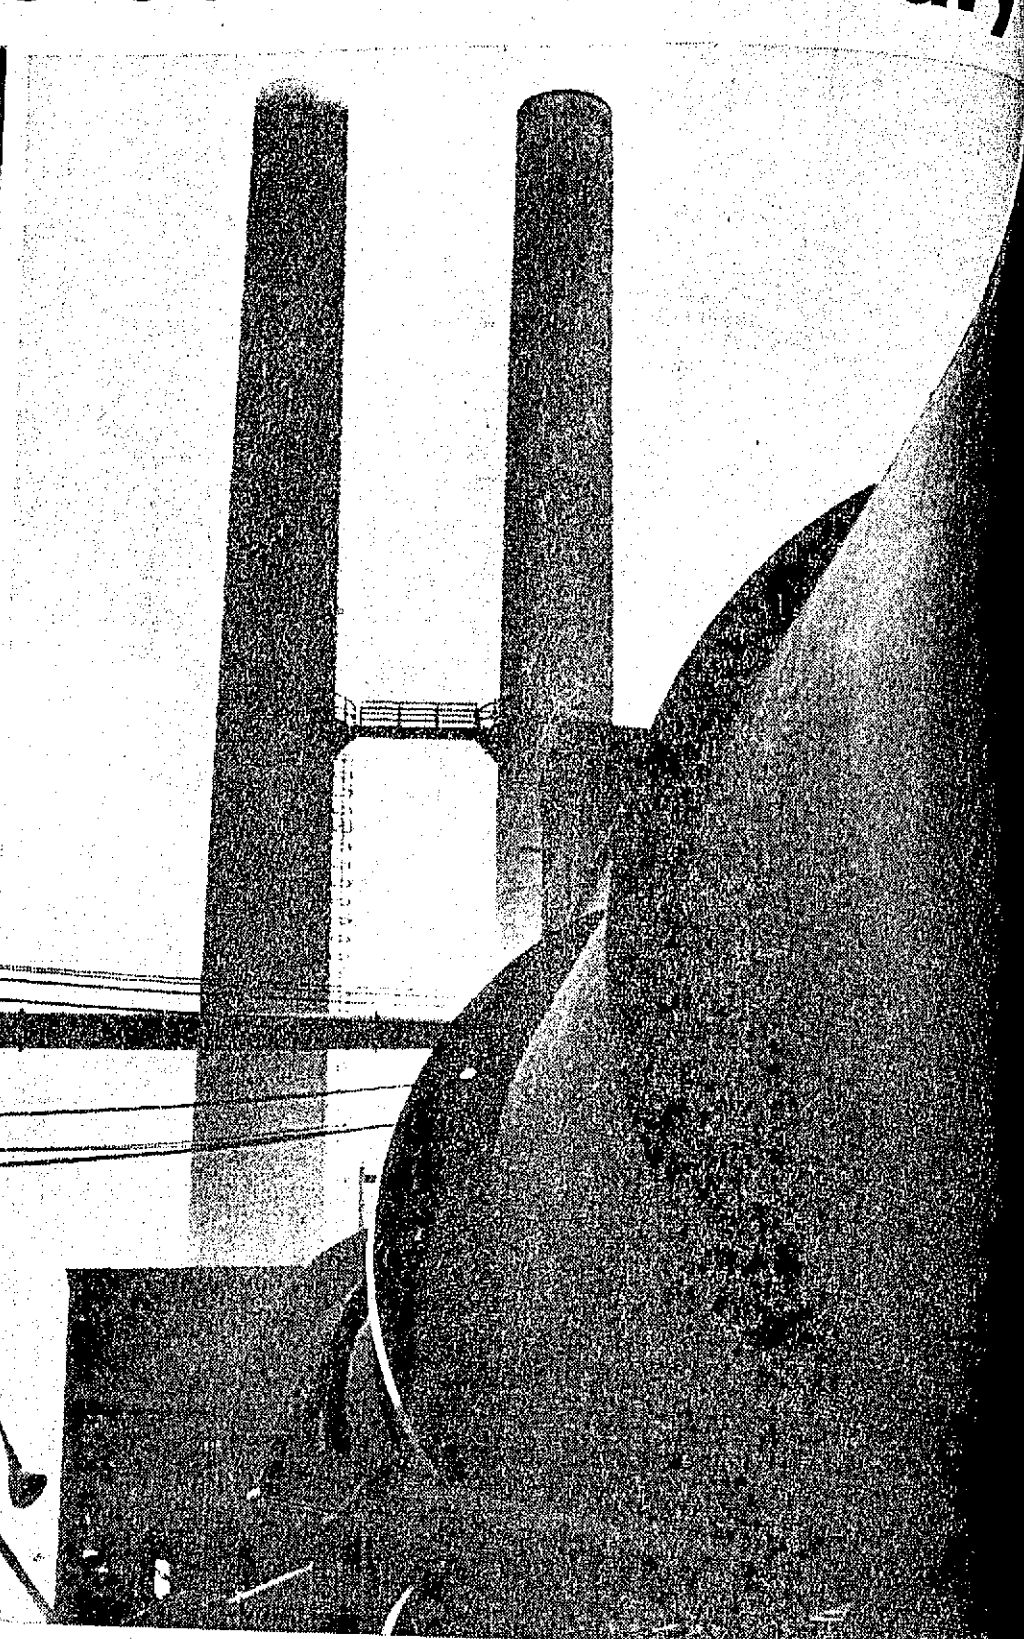

Ideal's Arkansas sales headquarters have always been in Little Rock. The firm's Sales Manager is Carroll Nordean, a veteran of 27 years with the company.

Demonstrating how the Ideal plant has kept pace with Arkansas' growth, the original one kiln plant built in 1929 was expanded in the 1940's with the addition of a second kiln which increased production capacity to 1,350,000 barrels annually. In 1957 the new kiln was extended, a new cooling system installed, and other modifications made which increased efficiency and added another 300,000 barrels capacity. Last year a new mill and other equipment were added which further increased the capacity. The latest improvement was the addition of high speed truck loading facilities at the plant. New high speed bulk cement truck loading facilities in addition to the existing rail loading facilities provide Ideal with a high degree of flexibility and the ability to provide greater service to its customers.

Improving the efficiency of operation at Ideal's plant is a continuous process, according to Ideal's Plant Manager, Mildred Ball. In the thirty years since Ideal opened its plant in Howard County, we have spent several million dollars

IDEAL CEMENT COMPANY'S PLANT, ABOVE, AT OKAY, in Howard County, completed 30 years of operation. The plant, which has been continually modernized and expanded over the years, is Arkansas' largest producer of portland cement. PHOTO AT RIGHT SHOWS KILN NO. 2 at the Okay plant. It is 375 feet in length and 9 1/2 feet in diameter. The two concrete stacks in the background are more than 20 feet in diameter at the bottom and more than 14 1/2 feet in diameter at the top. Both are 225 feet in height.

Outstanding Baseball Players

TWO OUTSTANDING BASEBALL players who led the local Eagles team in 28 wins this season are left: Jackie Tyus, son of Mr. and Mrs. James (Hamp) Tyus and Sheward Williamson, son of Mrs. Gurtha Williamson. Jackie held down the short stop post High Tigers in 1954-55 and made the All State team in 1955. He also made first string on the A. M. & N. College baseball team at Pine Bluff this spring. Bill Dickey, former Yankee great and now a scout for the New York Yankees, saw Jackie work out in a baseball school at Nashville, took his name and address and said he would follow Jackie's baseball career while he was in college. Sheward was captain of the Yerger High team in 1951-52, made All State both years and lettered on the Star office yesterday by Manager Rescoe. Both will enter A. M. & N. again this fall.

HILL SMOKE BY L. P. HOLMES

Far back in Frank Gentile's eyes a feline glow became more and more mercurial.

"Why ride this way, Coulter? and in such a rush?"

"Just—just riding." It was the weakest sort of an excuse, which Coulter well knew, but he could think of nothing better in the extreme of the moment.

"You're lying!" Gentile purred flatly. "I watched you leave headquarters. You sneaked out like a sheep-killing dog. You're up to something. Coulter, I understand there's a reward dodger up on the front of Jellek's store, offering $500 for his hide."

"I say—I'm just out for the ride," Coulter repeated dully.

"You're lying," he charged again. "And I'm taking you back to headquarters. We'll see what you start saying when Rutti Roob has to cut you in half with a quart."

Sweat burned down Frank Gentile's face, stung his eyes. His lips were dry and he ran his tongue across them. Personal fatality brooding came to him. There was no easy way out of this. He shivered to think what could lie for him back at Rutti Roob's headquarters. But he was a gambler. A few miles down the trail, he was looking for a chance to reach it.

Desperate, olding came to Frank Gentile. The cunning of a fox was in his mind. He was looking for a chance to reach it.

"All right," he murmured. "I'll go with you. I'll go with you."

"If that's the way you want it, that's the way it will be. We'll go back and see what Rutti Roob has to say."

With these words he went for his gun.

Stack Coulter was as good as the average at this sort of thing. Good enough to feel he had at least an even chance of getting there first. It was the final mistake of his life.

Coldly alert and suspecting something of the sort, Frank Gentile's gun was out and smashing to its hard report before Coulter's weapon was fully clear of the holster. Coulter's horse, having started a swing, kept on with the gun, but as it completed the turn, it no longer carried a rider.

In town, Grady Haskell spent the afternoon in his room, writing out a lengthy report. He wrote out a lengthy report to the full account of what had happened to Jack Breddon.

The report done, signed and sealed in an envelope for mail, Haskell leaned back in his chair, yawning.

In sudden echo came the rattling of boots at the west end of the street and then it was Sandy Lee brought Haskell's gun and den to the stable for the night.

"You fellows got to eat," Joe declared. "Come on along to my cabin. I ain't had evening grub mulligan on the back of the stove for a long time."

So presently they were in Joe's humble dwelling, eating a late and welcome supper.

Welcome Cool Air Moves Into the U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A welcome flow of cool air moved into the central part of the country today, ending at least temporarily the season's longest spell of hot and humid weather.

The cool air was felt in areas from northern Texas northward to the Canadian border and into the eastern half of Colorado. It was expected to spread into most of the mid-Mississippi Valley eastward to the lower Great Lakes region during the day.

Violent storms and rain broke out during the weekend in the muggy weather belt. Rain splashed most sections from the Atlantic Coast across the plains to the Rocky Mountains. Gusts, hail and heavy rain hit many areas Sunday and during the night. Lightning killed at least 10 persons over the weekend.

Sections of Texas were hampered by severe thunderstorms Sunday night. Winds up to 20 mph. Dashed the Dallas-Fort Worth area as the thunderstorms broke the 100-degree heat wave.

More than two inches of rain fell at Detroit, Syracuse, N. Y., Savannah, Ga., and Tallahassee, Fla. A tornado ripped through Devol in southwest Oklahoma, destroying five houses, the city post office and injuring one person.

In mythology, a three-headed dog, Cerberus, guards the entrance to Hades.

Sex Case Brings Two Suspensions

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Two white St. Louis policemen have been suspended, accused of having sexual relations with two negro girls while supposedly on duty.

The officers are Patrolmen William C. Olson, 24, married and the father of an only child, and Robert J. Wallace, 36, married with two children.

Asst. Circuit Atty. Henry J. Fredericks said the matter would be presented to a grand jury tomorrow.

The officers were suspended yesterday on charges of conduct unbecoming an officer and neglect of duty.

The two girls, one 18 and one 15, said the policemen had remained in the city for several days.
